5,000 JAPANESE TROOPS ARE ENCIRCLED

Dramatic Message From General Li Tsung-jen

Result Of Chinese Drive To South From Taierschwang

LINGYI SITUATION EASED

Hankow, March 30.

BETWEEN FOUR AND FIVE THOUSAND Japanese troops are now completely encircled between Yihhsien and Talerchwang on the Tientsin-Pukow Railway front and in danger of "annihilation" at any moment. A dramatic telephone message to this effect was received at Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's headquarters here this morning from General Li Tsung-jen, commander-in-chief of the Chinese forces on the Tientsin-Pukow Railway front.

THE JAPANESE FORCES HAVE BEEN TRAPPED, it is stated, as a result of a drive to the south by General Sun Lien-chun's troops from Talerchwang.

Japanese forces launched a series of desperate attacks last night and early this morning in an effort to break through the Chinese column but to no avail. Also there is no danger of the Japanese succeeding in breaking through.

In an effort to rescue the Japanese encircled in this area, Japanese troops who have been attacking Lingyi have given up their attempt to storm the town and have turned westward with a view to smashing through the Chinese right wing and reaching their comrades.

At one stage yesterday the situation at Lingyi appeared to be critical for the Chinese troops but the diversion of the Japanese from their attack on the town, supplemented by Chinese reinforcements rushing up to Lingyi is claimed here to have made the situation definitely easier.

The situation at Hanchwang remains unchanged with the opposing forces being engaged in artillery duel across the Grand Canal.

Further to the west flying columns of the Chinese left wing are continuing on towards Talian and Yenchow. (—Reuter.)

"EXTRAS" SOLD

Hankow, March 30.

After the quietness yesterday afternoon newsboys today again invaded the streets of Hankow selling "extras" and shouting news of latest Chinese successes on the Tientsin-Pukow Railway front.

Denunciation Of The Soviet Government

Liberators Will Soon Become A Legal Party

Riga, March 30.

A secret Moscow radio station again transmitted last night fierce denunciations of the Soviet Government. Men and women speakers attacked the Soviet Government for interfering with the affairs of other nations in order to create international chaos.

The speakers also announced that there was a steady growth in the ranks of the liberators, which it was declared, would shortly make them a legal party.

Jamming by the Soviet radio station succeeded slightly in interfering with reception. (—Reuter.)

A Reuter message from Riga on Tuesday reported that a movement, aiming at the overthrow of the Stalin regime, has apparently begun in a radio campaign from a secret short-wave station in Moscow.

The speaker stated that the liberators planned to establish a people's Government to find a solution to the Agrarian problem and allow the existence of private property in the capital.

He added that the radio campaign would be continued as long as possible.

THE DOCTOR SAYS

This Kind Of Food Will Keep Your Kiddies Healthy

Our habits with regard to the taking of food may change, according to the fashion or medical opinion of the moment, but there are certain foods which remain the staple articles of diet.

"Bread and butter, for instance, is proverbially the basis of our nutrition."

But there are many other simpler forms of foodstuffs.

It was the celebrated Dr. Johnston who said that oats was the food of horses in England and of men in Scotland. The rejoinder to that, made by a Scotsman, Boswell, was that there were no better horses than those in England, and no better men than those in Scotland.

Porridge has indeed gone through a great deal of adventure during the past thirty years.

At one time it was condemned as too sloppy, and it was believed to be deficient in certain vital elements. The fact remains, however, that many successful men and women have been brought up on porridge and milk.

FIRST-RATE FOOD FOR GROWING CHILDREN

The greatest authority on diet has stated that oats may be regarded as the most nutritious of all cereals.

The reason for this is that oats contain many important minerals, especially phosphorus. They also show considerable proportions of nitrogenous matter, which builds up the flesh and is especially good for growing children, even taking the place of meat.

But one of the great bulwarks of health is the fat which is present, and which provides a great store of reserve heat for cold weather.

There is starch also in oats, and therefore we are sure of energy.

On the whole, oats thus give us in even proportions a foodstuff which contains all the recognised elements for growth, development and good health.

There is another aspect of oats which should always be borne in mind.

It is necessary, of course, to pass the seeds through some form of mill, and it is found that the kernel of the seed is not easily shelled out.

The result is that when the grinding process goes on, a good deal of the husk is left, and is familiar to all as appearing in the form of small, glistening and rather keen-edged flakes.

Thus there is provided valuable "roughage," which stimulates the muscles of the intestines and counteracts any threat of constipation.

No survey of food would be of any value unless something were said about the vitamins it contains.

Oatmeal is especially known as containing vitamin B, this increasing the digestibility of the starch part of the food and giving the maximum amount of energy.

For the growing child therefore, oatmeal seems to be, not only advisable, but almost essential, especially in cold weather.

A great deal has been written and said about the "heating" properties of oatmeal. Most experienced people have found, however, that the only risk of heating in oatmeal arises (1) in the few people who are susceptible to it, and (2) in those who eat too much and do not take enough exercise.

EASY TO DIGEST AND TASTY

Oatmeal is so easily digested that there is little chance of its causing any congestion, provided even moderate exercise is taken. The number of the preparations of oats today is a sure sign of its value.

In some cases the husk is removed and we have a preparation called groats, but the most popular method today is rolling. Instead of putting the oat seeds into a mill, the grains are passed between heated rollers. This has the effect of breaking down the structure of the seed, and it renders each seed thin and flat.

There are two advantages of this method. The first is that, while the oats are being rolled, the seeds are half-cooked owing to the fact that the rollers are heated to any temperature required.

The second is that the oat grains are more quickly and more easily cooked because of the pulping process.

Another important quality possessed by rolled oats is that owing to the treatment, the fat which is present in a considerable quantity is maintained in a fresh condition.

VARIOUS WAYS USING SALMON

Although the old-fashioned roughly-milled Scotch oatmeal is perfectly satisfactory, the modern child appears to prefer rolled oats. VALUE OF MILK IN SCHOOLS

The growing child today needs butter, milk, plenty of cereals, fish, and a certain amount of sugar.

Sugar is not generally appreciated as being the vital element of food, as it undoubtedly is. There is no harm in giving a child sweets, provided they are wholesome and made of boiled sugar, or in any other suitable form.

Admittedly, a child should not have too many sweets, but barley sugar is of the greatest value in the nutrition of the growing boy or girl.

A question is often asked about the breakfast of the schoolboy. At one time the off-spring of simple people had to be content with a large plate of porridge and a bowl of milk, and off to school they went, eating no more until they had a sandwich at midday.

Nowadays, although porridge and milk is a common beginning to the daily intake of food, there is usually provided some other elements which will be more slowly digested and which continue the great work begun by the oats.

For this reason a boiled egg for breakfast, with brown bread and butter, is a very satisfactory second course.

Nowadays we are enabled to provide our children at school with milk. This is a very important advance.

Half a pint of milk about eleven o'clock will help the child greatly and tide him over until dinner time.

FISH HOT-POT

Line a fairly deep round casserole dish with previously cooked spaghetti or macaroni. Place in layers filleted sole, mushrooms and cream until dish is three-parts full. Dust each layer with celery, salt and black pepper and over top layer sprinkle lightly finely-chopped parsley and chives. Half a sweet bay leaf may also be added.

Slowly pour over contents sufficient milk to which two teaspoonfuls of mushroom ketchup have been added, to cover contents. Cover with lid and cook in moderate oven for 2½ hours. If necessary, add more milk later to keep dish moist.

Cod and tomatoes may be substituted for sole and mushroom and grated cheese for cream if a cheaper dish is required.

VARIOUS WAYS USING SALMON

All the family will enjoy it. In a Pic.

Ingredients: 1 small tin Middle-Cut salmon, 3 tomatoes, 1½ oz. margarine, 1 pint milk, 1 small onion, 3 tablespoonfuls white breadcrumbs, seasoning, parsley, nutmeg.

Brush a fireproof dish well with melted margarine and sprinkle all over with breadcrumbs, slice the tomatoes and lay evenly over the bottom of the dish.

Flake the salmon into medium-sized pieces, lay a layer of salmon on the tomatoes and add a layer of finely-chopped onion and parsley.

Make a white sauce, adding to it the salmon liquid and a little nutmeg.

Pour over salmon, cover with breadcrumbs and bake in a moderate oven for ten minutes. Remove from oven, dot with small pieces of margarine and grill till golden brown.

BAKED SALMON POTATOES

Nourishing and savoury dish.

Ingredients: 1 tin Middle-Cut salmon, 8 large potatoes, 2 oz. grated cheese, 1½ oz. margarine, salt and pepper, and a little hot milk.

Drain and flake the salmon. Bake the potatoes. Halve them lengthways and scoop out the potato.

Mash it well with margarine and a little hot milk. Add a good spoonful of flaked salmon to each potato case.

Season the mashed potato well with salt and pepper and add grated cheese. Fill each potato case and brown in a hot oven for 10 minutes.

WITH CHEESE SAUCE

Savoury garnish for the fish. Take a large tin of Middle-Cut salmon, heat the salmon and place it on a dish.

Make a good white sauce and after it has boiled add 1 oz. of grated cheese. Pour the sauce over the salmon. Slice three hard-boiled eggs over the top and garnish with parsley.

CREAMED SALMON

Ingredients: 1 tin salmon, 1 pint white sauce, 1 tablespoonful capers; 1 tin green peas, 4 squares of hot buttered toast.

Make the white sauce and heat the salmon in it, having first drained the fish. Drain the peas and add the capers to the mixture. Stir well together.

Serve piled high on rounds of hot buttered toast. This dish can be cooked very easily in a chafing dish, if the sauce has been previously made.

What is the USE of ADVERTISING

IF

the claims made are proved a fallacy? Would you buy that article a second time? While advertising is a powerful force in educating as to the uses, merits or money saving advantages of a product, the people are the judges when they make their first purchase. "Delivering the goods" is what they demand, and the scrap heap of failures is piled with goods that could not stand the test of public judgment. "ASPRO" messages are carefully planned to prove what "ASPRO" can do to alleviate pain and suffering, and the reason of its success throughout the civilised world is simple, because it fulfils all claims made for it. Its purity is its safety, and its quick action the healing service humanity appreciates. "ASPRO" conforms to the standard of purity laid down by the British Pharmacopoeia (the guiding authority of the Medical Profession), and the 15 uses enumerated below make it an invaluable quick first-aid emergency in every home.

HALIFAX OUTLINES BRITISH FOREIGN POLICY PRINCIPLES

To Make New Friends And Avert War

Opposition Wants Support For League

The House of Lords debated tonight a statement by the Foreign Secretary, Lord Halifax, made last Thursday which was identical in terms with that made by the Prime Minister in the House of Commons.

The Opposition Leader, Lord Snell, said that the Government appeared to live from day to day by political accommodation for the hour without any long-range policy. No one could say that the Government was committed to any immediate policy for political, economic or territorial adjustment.

Unless the Government had a policy which was creative, accommodating and readjusting, he said, the country would not escape the dangers which threatened ahead.

Peace, said Lord Snell, was the reward of right and clear thinking.

Lord Snell said that the Labour Party was anxious to do its share to help the Government in time of crisis but it was necessary to know where they were going, and he declined to promise their cooperation until they knew that.

He asked the Government to take strong and continued action to rebuild the League of Nations. The Government would then not only have the united nation behind it, he said, but the support of the whole civilised world.

The Archbishop of Canterbury said that it was easy to say "Rebuild the League," but they could not rebuild on broken foundations.

He had most reluctantly come to the conclusion that collective security was impossible.

"POLICY OF DESPAIR"
Lord Cecil

The suggestion that the Government should call a conference of countries sharing the same policy would create the danger of rival alliances and prejudice the chances of success in establishing better relations with Germany and Italy.

Lord Cecil said that he had found the Government's declaration inadequate to meet the situation and complained that they had no constructive policy in regard to the League of Nations except a policy of despair.

Lord Samuel thought that Government ought not to accept armed pacific opportunism—which involved an expenditure of millions of pounds daily, with the prospect of increase—as a permanent policy, although it might regard it as the only one possible at the moment.

He urged that when the present acute problems had been solved it would be the duty of Britain to go back to the policy of collective security and once more build up the League of Nations with a less ambitious programme as to penalties but a wider programme for settling grievances.

Halifax States Principles

Lord Halifax, replying to the debate, said that it had served on the whole to confirm the favourable impression made in nearly all quarters, both at home and abroad, by the Government's statement last Thursday.

In all the Dominions, as in Prague and in Paris and, he thought, in every foreign country, the Prime Minister's statement had received the same approval that it had received from the bulk of public opinion at home.

The Government, while adhering to all its treaty obligations and anxious to reassert its acceptance of the responsibilities of the Covenant and its determination, to the limit of its power, to fulfil them, was not prepared to accept any new and uncertain commitment which would have made participation of its people in war dependent upon a decision of a government other than its own.

At the same time, said Lord Halifax, public opinion also realised that no nation, cutting as it were a fireline in a forest, could set limits over its action.

With all that in mind, the Government was not prepared to see this country let go its constructive efforts by whatever means that might from time to time seem most promising, to find a solution for questions which might jeopardise European peace.

LABOUR MANIFESTO

Lord Halifax then proceeded to criticise the recent manifesto of the National Council of Labour, and said that the manifesto seemed to him an example of an intellectual gulf which those who spoke for Labour were always concerned to dig between themselves and the majority of public opinion, which had generally endorsed the Government's statement of policy.

The manifesto, called for a reversal of the Government's policy towards the Spanish civil war, but the Government would continue its policy of non-interference, he said.

As to the suggestion for calling the League Assembly, if he saw any useful purpose in doing so he would, but the Government could not support any such policy.

MUST BE REASONABLE

It was obvious that the League could only either pass resolutions which would have no effect, or endeavour to bring the forces of its members together in a defensive alliance. That, said Lord Halifax, would only make hostile intentions more determined.

"If we are to succeed," said the Foreign Secretary, "we must be reasonable. If we maintain all our old friendships and if we can extend the circle of our friends as I believe we can through our conversations with the Italian Government and by resuming old relations which had unhappily been temporarily interrupted, we shall render real service."

GUIDING PRINCIPLES

"The principles on which I would seek to base British policy are:

"At home, we must preserve our own democracy, our institutions and our individual rights;

"Abroad, we shall seek to uphold what we believe to be the right of using our influence to prevent the division of Europe into rival camps and taking every opportunity to use our good offices to promote conciliation."

No Government, said the Foreign Secretary, could hope to formulate and execute foreign policy without the solid backing of the nation, and no policy was worth much unless the people of the country were inspired by resolute determination to accept whatever sacrifice was necessary to make the policy succeed.—(British Wire-less).

NOTHING DECIDED IN SCHUSCHNIGG TRIAL

Vienna, March 30. Press reports which asserted that the former Austrian Federal Chancellor, Dr. Kurt von Schuschnigg, would be tried by the supreme court at Leipzig are, so Transocean was informed by authoritative quarters here yesterday, unsubstantiated by facts "since no decision of any kind has been reached by anyone in this matter so far."

Transocean was informed, moreover, that it was unlikely that the matter would be dealt with for some time to come.—(Transocean).

ANXIETY FOR GIRL

Jerusalem, March 29. The body of a fifth victim, riddled with bullets, was found at the scene of the ambush yesterday, where Arab brigands attacked a taxicab on the Safad-Acre road.

Anxiety is felt regarding the fate of a girl who is believed to have been kidnapped by the brigands.—(Reuter).

FRANCO'S TROOPS MEET FIRMER RESISTANCE

Crack Government Brigades in Action

Saragossa, March 30.

Nationalist troops yesterday continued their advance in Aragon and in southwest Catalonia.

The town of Barbastro, situated on the Cinca river, which was captured by the Nationalists on Monday, is now far behind the front owing to the fact that the Nationalists have succeeded in forcing a passage across the river at this point despite stubborn resistance.

Government troops are now offering firmer resistance than was noticed during the last few days. This stiffening has been felt in the Ebro sector in the east and in the north of Caspe, where crack Government brigades were thrown into action to prevent the Nationalists from breaking through to Tortosa on the Mediterranean coast.—(Transocean).

FIRING NEAR BARCELONA

Barcelona, March 29. People in the suburbs of Barcelona claim they can hear the sound of gunfire from the front. Meanwhile the Catalan Government is exhorting Catalans to mobilise all forces and to summon all their energies to defend their territory from the invaders.

It is claimed that the Insurgents' easy advance across the plains towards the Cinca River has been held up by a desperate resistance in the neighbourhood of Fraga.

Army Corps commanders issued a proclamation declaring: "Once again in very grave circumstances our soldiers know their duty, and are writing in blood the heroic cry of 'Die rather than retreat.'"

The press is calling for 100,000 volunteers and the construction of fortifications behind the front and around Barcelona.

PROLONGED RESISTANCE

"We have decided to prolong our resistance," stated that Premier of the Spanish Republican Government, Dr. Juan Negrin, in a broadcast today.

"We feel we are strong, and we ask for the confidence of our heroic fighters and the civil population. Our only course is to resist and fight."

The Premier attacked the democratic powers in Europe, declaring that they had no wish nor did they want to help the Republican Government against foreign aggression.—(Reuter).

Puppet Misses Assassination

EXCITEMENT AMONG JAPANESE IN PEIPING

Peiping, March 30. The police are combing the city for six Chinese gunmen who last night unsuccessfully attempted to assassinate Mr. Wang Keh-min, head of the "Provisional Government" established by the Japanese.

Mr. Wang was going home with his Japanese secretary and adviser from a dinner party. As his motor car emerged from a side street into the main road, ten pistol shots rang out.

One bullet pierced Mr. Wang's clothing without harming him, but Mr. Yamamoto, his secretary, was struck in the arm and face and was taken to hospital in a serious condition.

There was much excitement among the Japanese community, and the Japanese authorities established police posts at all entrances to the Legation quarter, at the same time attempting to hold up and search everyone passing, including diplomats and foreign women.

The British and American Embassies protested to the Japanese Embassy against this, while bodyguards for members of the "Provisional Government" were reinforced.—(Reuter).

BOMB IN ITALIAN CONSULATE

Shanghai, March 30. A bomb was hurled yesterday into the grounds of the Italian Consulate in Shanghai. Little damage was done, however, and nobody was injured.—(Transocean).

INSURGENT PROTEST

Salamanca, March 29. An insurgent statement was issued today which criticised the French Government for allowing a submarine which had been under repairs at Bordeaux to be returned to the Spanish Government.

The statement said this action was contrary to international law.—(Reuter).

RESPONSE TO PROTEST

London, March 29. In the House of Commons today the Prime Minister, in reply to a question, said that the British Government could not regard General Franco's reply to the British protest regarding the bombing of Barcelona as adequate justification for the attack in view of the exceptional loss of life and injury to the civil population.

Nevertheless, said the Premier, he was glad to note that no further bombardments of Barcelona had occurred since the recent communication sent to General Franco.—(Reuter).

"UNDERWORLD"

Bancroft Heads The Cast

George Bancroft, in one vivid and sweeping portrayal as the fugitive public enemy in Columbia's "Racketeers In Exile," yesterday reestablished himself as the outstanding character actor of the current cinema. Audiences at the Majestic Theatre again saw the Bancroft of "Underworld" and "Docks of New York" fame—a striking, dynamic figure lifted bodily out of real life.

The star appears as "Big Bill" Waldo, an overlord of the underworld, who, beneath that exterior is a simple, appealing sort of fellow.

Bancroft's role is the strongest he has ever played, and its vital undercurrent of religious emotion gives him a new appeal that is sure to satisfy audiences everywhere.

Praise is due Wynne Gibson and Evelyn Venable for their flawless characterizations, as well as Marc Lawrence, Garry Owens, John Gallaudet and others. Richard Carle and George McKay contribute much of the picture's comedy. Erle C. Kenton directed from the story by Harry Sauber.

NINO MARTINI'S LATEST

"Music For Madame"

At Queen's
Jail is one of the last places one would expect a romance to bloom. However, that is where Cupid first aims his dart at Nino Martini and Joan Fontaine in "Music For Madame," which opens at the Queen's Theatre today.

Martini plays an ambitious Italian singer who has dropped into bad hands on reaching Hollywood to forward his career. In fact, he becomes the pawn of a clever gang of crooks who have pulled a half-million-dollar gem robbery at a wedding reception.

When he goes to the police station to surrender and clear his name, he meets Joan, who is a young composer and who also ran into difficulty when she crashed into the party.

THE LIFE OF THE PARTY

Tuneful Musical Romance

An all-star, high-speed modern romance, around which is built one of the gayest screen musical comedies of the season, is "The Life of the Party," which opens at the Alhambra Theatre today.

Gene Raymond and Harriet Hillard, the screen's newest romantic team, supply the heart interest, and Joe Penner, Parkyakarkus, Helen Broderick and Victor Moore furnish most of the laughs.

"The Life of the Party" concerns the romance between Raymond and Miss Hillard—a romance which follows a rocky and unorthodox path interspersed with six tuneful hits and three spectacular dance numbers.

Raymond, as heir to a fortune which he loses if he marries before he is thirty, falls in love with Harriet Hillard, a struggling young singer whose mother wants her to marry another rich man.

Most of the picture's action takes place in a luxurious hotel in Santa Barbara, California, the famous "millionaires' playground of the Pacific Coast."

KING'S THEATRE'S GOOD BUSINESS DURING 1937

40 CENTS DIVIDEND DECLARED

The large influx of refugees from China during the last few months of 1937 proved of much benefit to local cinema theatres, according to the Hon. Sir Shouson Chow, presiding at the annual general meeting of the China Entertainment and Land Investment Co., Ltd., held in the King's Theatre Building yesterday.

He reported that the balance of the working account showed an increase of approximately 20 per cent. over that of the previous year and that the year's working could be considered as satisfactory.

Those present were:—Hon. Sir Shouson Chow (Chairman), the Hon. Dr. S. W. T'so, Messrs. Liang Chi-hao, Chang Kwai-yuen, Li Lin-chi, Chang Kwai-on, Li Jow-sun, Cheung Kwai-lin, and George Sun (Directors), and Messrs. Ngan Sal-long, Chan Kwai-ping and Sun Ming-kwong (shareholders).

The Chairman said:—Considering the high rentals paid by the cinema theatres to the film distributors and the keen competition among the theatres themselves as well as from various other attractions such as Chinese theatrical performances and the dancing halls, I think you will agree that the Company has done as well as could be expected and that the year's working can be considered to be satisfactory.

As to our Land Investment Department, it gives me pleasure to report that all the shops and offices in our building have been fully occupied throughout the year at reasonable rentals, in spite of the fact that accommodation in so many other buildings was available.

Turning to the accounts, I would draw attention to the item of $10,210.52 written off from Investment Account. This is the balance from the Cinemas, Ltd., which formerly operated the Queen's Theatre, and with this final writing off the account is closed.

The amount written off fixtures, equipment and building is $34,183.90, after which the balance of net profit for the year is $87,765.68, to which must be added $4,515.93 balance brought forward from the previous year, making the total amount available for distribution $72,281.59.

OFFICES AND SHOPS
Your Directors recommend placing to General Reserve $25,000 and payment of a dividend of 40 cents per share, absorbing $39,943.20, leaving a balance of $7,338.39 to be carried forward to next account.

The Chairman proposed and Mr. Sun Ming-kwong seconded that the Report and Accounts be adopted. This was carried unanimously. Messrs. Chang Kwai-chong and Chang Kwai-yuen were re-elected Directors and Messrs. Percy Smith, Seth and Fleming re-elected Auditors.

Members' Disinterestedness Deplored At St. George's Society Meeting

PRESIDENT APPEALS FOR GREATER SUPPORT

Appreciation of the fact that His Excellency the Governor, Sir Geoffrey Northcote, had consented to become Patron of the Society of St. George, Hong Kong, was expressed by Mr. G. S. Archbutt, presiding at the Society's annual general meeting, held in the Board Room of the Hong Kong Jockey Club yesterday.

Mr. Archbutt appealed for better support for the annual ball, which last year resulted in a small loss. He said there was not the slightest doubt that the loss was the result of the disinterested attitude of members generally.

Those present at the meeting were—Mr. G. S. Archbutt (retiring President), Hon. Mr. S. H. Dodwell, Hon. Sir Henry Pollock, Mr. L. C. F. Bellamy, Mr. W. A. Cornell, Mr. J. A. Danby, Mr. C. C. Roberts, Mr. Dixie-Beale, Mr. P. S. Cassidy, Mr. E. Cock, Mr. V. C. Labrum and Mr. W. A. Sommerfelt, representing the Secretaries and Treasurers, Messrs. Linstead and Davis.

RELIEF WORK

The Chairman said.—Before proceeding with the business of the Meeting, I should like to place on record our appreciation of the fact that His Excellency Sir Geoffrey Northcote has graciously consented to become Patron of this Society.

The Report and Statement of Accounts for the year 1937 have been in your hands for the prescribed period, and I propose with your permission to take them as read.

The form of the Accounts is familiar to you, and an explanation of differences between 1937 and the previous year is given in the Report. I do not propose, therefore, to comment at any length on the figures.

I should like, however, to make reference to our charitable work. Our main expenditure is on relief work which, incidentally, shows a reduction as compared with 1936. I am pleased to say that we have once again received a refund in respect of financial assistance granted. The whole of the amount of $120, refunded, was received from one lady for whom we were able to arrange a passage to England in return for services as a children's nurse.

DONATIONS

An unusual feature of the year's activities was that of the persons we assisted there were women, all very deserving cases. I should like to take this opportunity of expressing my appreciation of the assistance, and co-operation which we have received from the Hong Kong Benevolent Society, the Police and the British Legion.

The fact that grants and donations were less last year than in the previous year does not mean that donations for charity are not required. Calls on us vary from year to year, and we can never tell what the future will bring forth. I hope that members will respond as readily as they have done in the past.

My predecessor expressed the hope that the annual golf match against the St. Andrew's Society would be played by much more representative sides rather than by the selected few as hitherto. The proposition found favour with our old "enemies" and the result was that teams of 40 a side competed, but I regret to say that once again we were compelled to admit defeat, although I understand that all participating in the match thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

MEMBERSHIP

We also played a most enjoyable lawn bowls match against the St. Andrew's Society, but here also we were beaten. We shall have to look to our laurels this year both of golf and at lawn bowls.

Our total membership does not show any signs of increasing; in fact, it is less than last year in spite of the fact that 34 new members were elected during the year under review. I hope you will all do your best to bring in new members.

Here I feel that it will not be out of place to inform members that this year the Annual Ball resulted in a small loss which your Committee have agreed to make good. There is not the slightest doubt that the loss is the result of the disinterested attitude of members generally.

It will readily be appreciated that the time must arrive when, if the Ball is not sufficiently supported, we shall have to consider abandoning it. This, I think, would be a great pity. It should be fully supported, as it is the only function of its kind which the St. George's Society holds. It provides Englishmen, members of the Society, with an excellent opportunity of meeting their friends and of returning hospitality. I should like to see it well supported not only to make it a continued success as a function, but also as a means of adding to our charitable funds.

PRESIDENT'S THANKS

Last year on St. George's Day a wreath was laid at the Cenotaph on Armistice Day.

Before closing, I should like to express my personal thanks to the members of the Committee for their help and assistance during my year of office. In addition I should like to add my grateful thanks to Mr. Sommerfelt, representing our Secretaries and Treasurers for his assistance to me personally.

Also, on behalf of the Society, I wish to thank Mr. S. Hampden Ross for having once again audited the accounts.

I now have pleasure in proposing the adoption of the Report and Accounts for the year 1937, and after this has been seconded, I shall be pleased to answer any questions which Members wish to raise.

Seconded by Mr. L. C. F. Bellamy, the proposal was carried unanimously.

Proposed by the Chairman, and seconded by Sir Henry Pollock, Mr. S. H. Dodwell was elected resident for the ensuing year.

Mr. W. A. Cornell proposed and Mr. J. D. Danby seconded that the Hon. Mr. M. T. Johnson should be elected Vice-President. This was carried unanimously.

Messrs. L. C. F. Bellamy, J. K. Bousfield, C. Bernard Brown, P. S. Cassidy, W. A. Cornell, J. D. Danby, F. C. Hall, V. C. Labrum, G. Miskin, C. C. Roberts, G. G. N. Tinson and G. G. Wood were elected en bloc as the new Committee.

Messrs. Linstead and Davis were re-elected Secretaries and Treasurers.

It was decided that observance of St. George's Day this year would be limited to a wreath-laying ceremony at the Cenotaph.

Sir Henry Pollock proposed a warm vote of thanks to the retiring President for the way in which he had filled the position. This was carried with acclamation.

REAL SUMMER WEATHER

Conditions generally were perfect, the sky being cloudless most of the day. These conditions are expected to last.

His Excellency Vice-Admiral Sir Percy Noble, C.B., C.V.O., Commander-in-Chief, China Station, paid an official visit to the Royal Air Force station at Kai Tak yesterday morning.

His Excellency was met by Group Captain A. H. Peck, D.S.O., M.C., who only yesterday assumed command of the R.A.F. in Hong Kong in succession to Wing Commander W. A. K. Dalzell.

A smart guard of honour was present, commanded by Flight Lt. P. U. C. Shirley.

After a short inspection, Sir Percy Noble was entertained in the Officers' Mess.

MEDICAL LECTURE

Dr. F. K. Chen, skin disease specialist of Shanghai, gave a very interesting lecture, "Skin Diseases of Haematogenous Origin," to members of the Medical Society of the Hong Kong University in the School of Surgery yesterday.

At the conclusion of Dr. Chen's talk, during which lantern slides were used, Dr. K. W. Oei, chairman of the Society, proposed a vote of thanks to the speaker.

JEWELLERY WORTH $29,000

FRAUDULENT CONVERSION ALLEGED

Before Mr. R. Edwards at the Central Magistracy yesterday, Ng Tai-heung was charged on five counts of fraudulent conversion, between February and April last year, of jewellery to the value of $29,000 from various Chinese jewellery firms who had entrusted him with the jewellery.

It was alleged that defendant obtained the jewellery from the Tai Hing, Tai Wing, Tin Po and Tin Mow Jewellery stores undertaking to sell for them. In case he could not sell, the jewellery was to be returned. When given the articles, which included diamonds, he was allowed a few days to dispose of them after which time, if he was unable to do so, he was to return the jewellery.

Defendant was a recognised broker for the various jewellery shops in question. He had transactions with them before. It was alleged that defendant after receiving the jewellery went to Saigon and it was not until March 9 last that defendant as brought was brought back from Saigon by Det. Sgt. R. McVey.

After various witnesses had given evidence, the defendant was committed for trial.

Mr. E. H. Williams, Assistant Attorney General, prosecuted.

SNATCH AND RUN IN KOWLOON

ACCUSED WILL BE CANED

Chen Chek-pu, 34, of no fixed abode, appeared before Mr. K. M. A. Barnett at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday on a charge of larceny from Tam Lok.

Inspector Armit, who prosecuted, stated that complainant was walking along Hak Po Street on the morning of March 29 when defendant approached from behind and snatched a gold earring valued at $10.

Chen, it was alleged, then ran. Complainant raised the alarm and gave chase, followed by several persons. Defendant was caught by an unknown Chinese man, who turned him over to the police.

His Worship remanded accused, who pleaded guilty, for 48 hours to see if he was fit for a caning. His Worship commended the complainant's pluck in giving alarm and chase.

SUICIDE ATTEMPT ALLEGED

A remand of seven days was granted by Mr. K. M. A. Barnett at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday, when Leung Shuk-ching, 32, spinster, of 506, Prince Edward Road, first floor, was charged with attempted suicide on March 10.

Defendant, it was alleged, jumped from the first floor verandah of the Kowloon Hospital.

Sub-Inspector W. Armit is in charge of the case.

Accused, it was stated, is still in hospital.

PRISON AND CANE

Twelve strokes of the cane and nine months' hard labour was imposed on Li Hoi, unemployed, by Mr. Q. A. A. Macfadyen at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday, when he was found guilty on a charge of snatching a pair of gold earrings, valued at $40, from Chuen Kum in Shamsulpo on March 29. Sergeant F. H. Kelly prosecuted.

EVADING STAMP DUTY

Li Chiu-shum, of No. 160 Hollywood Road, and seven others appeared before Mr. Q. A. A. Macfadyen at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday on charges of evading stamp duty, thereby defrauding the government of certain revenue. Sergeant J. G. Whitcroft prosecuted.

Fines ranging from $20 were severally imposed on the accused, all of whom pleaded guilty.

MANUK LODGE

Mr. R. K. Laing will not be able to give his lecture on "The Lotus Sutra" at the Manuk Lodge today, but the weekly meeting will be held as usual.

H.M.S. Thracian arrived from Amoy yesterday.

UNION CHURCH WEDDING

Gunn-Turner

A wedding of much interest to naval circles was solemnised at the Union Church, Kennedy Road, yesterday when Miss Edith Mary Turner, daughter of Dr. G. Reynolds Turner and the late Mrs. Turner, became the bride of Instructor Lieutenant - Commander Angus Gunn, son of the late Dr. and Mrs. Norman Gunn, of Dufftown, Scotland.

MILK

Dr. R. A. de Castro, Basto's arguments against pasteurisation of milk in Hong Kong, at the meeting of the Urban Council on Tuesday, were clever and subtle, but they lacked conviction. It was not surprising, therefore, that his amendment found no second.

The position is this: Reconstituted milk, that is a food prepared by the addition of water to a powder containing the chief ingredients of milk, has entered the local market, and the authorities have decided to make it compulsory for manufacturers of this product to pasteurise it before sale to the public.

The two companies which sell reconstituted milk in Hong Kong at present pasteurise it of their own volition. The effect of the new legislation is to make it obligatory for all manufacturers of this food to pasteurise it, as there is good reason to believe that competitors may spring up in due course who might not pasteurise.

Dr. Basto argues that reconstituted milk is already in a sterilised state, provided good care is taken to see that only boiled or distilled water is used, it is useless, and a needless expense to pasteurise it.

He submits that it may even be dangerous, as it is not impossible for the pasteurisation plant to be dirty, or, at any rate, not scrupulously clean.

This was the burden of Dr. Basto's arguments in so far as the new product is concerned, but he did not conceal his opposition to pasteurisation of milk in any shape or form in Hong Kong.

The bottom was completely taken out of Dr. Basto's speech by the answer of Dr. Selwyn-Clarke, who pointed to the ravages of such diseases as dysentery, typhoid and cholera in Hong Kong, all of which are mostly liquid-borne diseases.

Reconstituted milk requires the addition of water for manufacture and Dr. Basto himself stressed the importance of the use of uncontaminated water.

It is a greatly simpler business to enforce pasteurisation than to ensure the use of uncontaminated water. The latter would require the presence of an inspector or some other health official, at every factory while the process of manufacture was going on.

It is quite clear that the problem of making milk absolutely safe for drinking will always be present, because milk is so easily contaminated.

Pasteurisation, provided it is done on up-to-date lines in a modern plant, is a thorough sterilisation process, but even after pasteurisation the greatest care must be taken or the food will easily become recontaminated, such

Child Found Alone During Police Raid

WOMAN GAOLED FOR HARBOURING

BOY MISSING SINCE NOVEMBER

Chau Kwai-yau, married woman, of 33, Ha Yeu Ng Village appeared before Mr. K. M. A. Barnett at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday on a charge of harbouring Nam Chai, aged five years, well knowing that the child had been enticed from the care of his mother.

Det.-Insp. A. E. Carey stated that the father of the child reported to the police that his son was missing on the morning of November 3 from No. 4, Yau Ching Wang Road, Kowloon City.

Nothing more was heard of the child until the morning of March 25 when the police raided an unnumbered house in Ha Yeu Ng Village and found the boy. No one else was on the premises at the time. About ten minutes after the arrival of the police Chau Kwai-yau entered and claimed the boy to be her own but later retracted her statement. She alleged that her husband, who was a seaman and was at present away from the Colony, had brought the child to the house several months ago.

Several marks of violence were found on the child's body, which the police alleged the defendant had caused in an effort to make the boy get used to the surname they had given him. Otherwise he appeared to be well looked after.

When questioned by his Worship, the defendant said she had nothing to say but admitted the charge.

Defendant was sentenced to nine months' hard labour and the child was ordered to be restored to his mother.

For instance as leaving it in an open pan for any length of time in polluted atmosphere.

On the other hand, milk produced and stored in any but the most hygienic conditions and sold unpasteurised is a source of considerable greater danger. That danger can, of course, be eliminated by boiling.

In India, where milk is almost a staple food among many millions of Hindus, milk is never consumed without being boiled. There are no greater bottled-milk drinkers than the Sikhs, but there does not seem to be much wrong with them physically. Pasteurisation is hardly heard of in India for this reason. It is not necessary.

The position in Hong Kong is different. Here, although milk is not such a popular food, a not inconsiderable trade is done by numerous small dairies.

The Chinese consumer does not, as a rule, boil milk. He drinks it as it comes to him. It is, therefore, essential that the milk sold by these dairies should be perfectly pure and free from all contamination—that it must be produced and stored in hygienic conditions.

A visit to many local dairies is, therefore, all that is required to convince one of the absolute necessity of making pasteurisation compulsory in this Colony.

The conditions which prevail, not only at some of the small dairies but also in the milk store houses in town, are appalling. Milk is one of the easiest things in the world to adulterate and yet the number of prosecutions for this offence during the past twelve months could be counted on the fingers of one hand—if there have been any at all.

The plea that compulsory pasteurisation will throw many small dairies out of business can be dismissed as unworthy of consideration.

On the question of public health the main consideration is the greatest good for the greatest number. Sympathy will be extended to those who suffer by the change but no advance along these lines was ever made without some hardship to somebody.

If pasteurisation is considered necessary in England and the Dominions it is a thousand times more so in a colony such as Hong Kong where the standard of cleanliness and hygiene is infinitely lower.

That is the amazing part of the decision not so very long ago to await the instructions of the Home authorities on the question of compulsory pasteurisation, the idea being to adopt the same course here as in England.

For sheer blockheadedness that decision is difficult to surpass.

New Internal Situation Within China Discussed Significance Of Kuomintang Party Conferences

The success of the counter-offensive, which the left and right flanks of our armies in the field are carrying out, is a powerful stimulant for the Chinese People. In time as well as in space this success could not be more opportune.

In Hankow, the centre of the Chinese National life, an important meeting of the Kuomintang Party is being held. The agenda of the meeting BY PERCY CHEN has not been published but a close observer of Chinese politics may discern that the principal question to be discussed is the question of the People and the Livelihood of the People.

Had we not had successes in the field or had we merely been able to maintain our defensive position it might have been said that the question of peace with Japan or even a compromise (on terms difficult for a patriot to conjecture) might have occupied the minds of the assembled delegates.

But in the present circumstances of the forceful pinning of the enemy to the ground around Tsinling and Linzi in Shangtung, at Tsinling in North Honan, and at Pinglu and Puchow in South-west Shansi, and then the launching of a firm counterstroke to recapture Tsinling and drive back the enemy from Pinglu, the will to victory is finally established and the fight will be a fight to a finish—in a fight for final victory.

PRESENT DAY CHINA
In order to understand the reasons for the phenomenon that is present day China, it is necessary to cast back over the recent years and note the significance of each Kuomintang Party Conference or Plenary meeting.

For in those meetings and the subsequent events one may perceive the operation of laws of human conduct when applied to the large mass of the Chinese people, vast in its bulk and seemingly bewildering in the diversity of the interests of the groups of the people.

In December 1935 there was a plenum of the Kuomintang held in Nanking. In Chinese political life this plenum marked the end of the so-called period of "Conciliation by Concession".

A regrettable incident marred Chinese political life in the attempt made upon the life of Mr. Wang Ching-wei, the President of the Political Council. General Chiang Kai-shek assumed the role of chief political, as well as chief military officer of our State and expressed the will of the people by a firm and dignified refusal to be dictated to by the successive Japanese ambassadors, Arisaka, Arita, and Kawagoe, while the Foreign Minister General Chang Chun did not quail beneath the table thumping of the redoubtable Mr. Suma.

With the end of the period of "Conciliation by Concession" came the birth of the people's movements, so-called National Salvation movements, which were genuinely expressive of the will to resistance of a large and influential section of the people throughout the country.

"WILL TO RESISTANCE"
The development of this "will to resistance" was alike in the North (in Peiping, Tientsin) and in the South (Kwangtung and Kwangsi). Shanghai was the focal point of expression. There was a wave of new vernacular newspapers claiming several hundred thousand circulation daily.

The will to resistance against Japan was nearly side-stepped in 1936 by a grave threat of a recurrence of civil war. The civil strife between the Central Forces and the Communist armies had not ceased but it had entered a state of factual stalemate. But in April the Liangkwan problem nearly wrecked Chinese development on the old reef of civil war.

In spite, however, of outward signs to the contrary, Chinese public opinion had taken a definite stand against separatism and against wars in China in which Chinese fought Chinese. And the Kuomintang Plenum of June 1936 laid the basis for national unity, which developed to its full with the Japanese attack at Lukuchiao, the following year.

The last outstanding contradiction to the full development of Nationalism was cleared away at the Plenum of the Kuomintang in December 1936, when a completely

What does the Secretary of State for the Colonies know of conditions here on this question? Has he visited any of the local dairies?

"New Internal Situation Within China" was made possible by the formulation of conditions wherein the Chinese Communist Party could acquire legality in order to participate in the struggle for the preservation of the territorial, political and administrative integrity of the country.

FIRM STAND

The way had been tortuous but the goal was reached just in time for China to be able to stand firm before Japanese aggression on July 8 outside Peiping. And with the opening shot of the invader across the Marco Polo Bridge came the roar of Chinese guns in salute for the fulfilment of the First Principle of Sun Yat Sen, the Principle of Nationalism.

The aim of 40 years' unselfish toil by the late leader was realised. China was one—United. The past hectic eight months have not only witnessed the ebb and flow of the Chinese forces in the battlefields. It has witnessed the intense struggle between those among our people who are morally strong and those who are morally weak.

The test of war has destroyed many. And the "purge" has been thorough if only in its opening stages. The whining of "doubting Thomases" has been louder than the moans of our wounded heroes. "We cannot win—let's beg for peace—we'll absorb our conquerors" etc. were heard more often than not from those who had inhaled the opium of bureaucratic helplessness.

But eight months of heroic fighting has not all been sacrifice. In being killed we have killed as well and we stand today on our strength flowing from our armies and our people bound together in an indissoluble mass by the ties of Nationalism.

OTHER PRINCIPLES

There are two other principles which form the doctrine of Sun Yat Sen—Democracy and Livelihood.

The first, Democracy, deals with the political status of the Chinese people. The second deals with the economic status of the Chinese people. But both are intimately bound up with the individual existence of each one of the 450 million souls that make up our vast nation.

Victory cannot be won without the inculcation of the will to victory in the overwhelming majority of this population, with the participation of the vast majority consciously in the great task of working for victory.

For we know that before final victory is won over the Japanese invader and aggressor, the trials of the nation from the ravages of war, from flood, from pestilence, from active sabotage and treason by evil-doers, from incompetence and corruption on the part of debased and unprincipled bureaucrats will be enormous.

And unless the people, composed of the merchants, the industrialists, the peasants, the labourers, the students, the bankers, and the soldiers, actively participate in the struggle—possess the will to victory—the fight will take longer to win and the enemy may escape defeat for a longer period.

From the present meeting of the Kuomintang in Hankow will flow the events that must lead to victory.

REPUBLICANS STAGE HEROIC DEFENCE

ARAGON FRONT BATTLE IS CONTINUED WITH UNABATED VIOLENCE

REPUBLICAN TOWNS BOMBED: HEAVY CASUALTIES FEARED

Madrid, March 30.

Fighting on the Aragon front is continuing with undiminished violence, declares a bulletin issued by the Republican Defence Ministry last night.

Nationalist troops have succeeded in occupying the town of Barbastro and have crossed the Rio Cinca at two points.

The defence put up by the Republicans near Fraga was truly heroic, according to the bulletin.

The Nationalists launched repeated attacks in the south of Caspe but did not succeed in bringing about any decided change in the position.

Three air attacks on Lerida were carried out yesterday by the Nationalists in the course of which six planes were shot down by the Republican anti-aircraft guns.

The enemy has again become active on the Andalusian front, according to the bulletin, an attack on the Republican positions at Comalabrera having been carried out yesterday though without success.

The Republican attack in Valdecañal sector, resulted in the occupation of several hills and the villages of Terriente and Masagosa.

COLOSSAL R.A.F. BUILDING

London, March 29.

A further section of the biggest building programme any Government department has been called to carry out is now being launched by the Works Directorate of the Air Ministry.

This is the next step in the further progressive expansion of the Royal Air Force which has been lately approved by the Government.

The programme provides for the construction of additional air force stations and maintenance units distributed throughout England and Scotland at a total cost in the coming financial year of nearly £11,000,000.

They will be used principally for defence training establishments and the maintenance purposes required under the extended expansion scheme.

The provision of new stations will also entail the planning and making of roads and the installation of an electrical and a water supply system on a large scale.

The magnitude of the works programme now in hand is shown by the growth of the Works Directorate.

In the last five years it has risen from £1,762,000 to £16,322,000, a figure which is not far short of the total expenditure of the Royal Air Force in 1933. (British Wireless).

CANTON COMMEMORATES 72 MARTYRS' DAY

Thousands Of Patriots Stage Torch Parade

Canton, March 30.

A gigantic torch parade, in which more than 10,000 people representing over ten public organisations participated, climaxed the commemoration programme of the anniversary of the 72 Revolutionary martyrs yesterday.

Led by General Li Hsu-huan, member of the City Kuomintang Headquarters here, the procession started about 7 p.m. from the Sun Yat-sen Memorial Hall and wound its way through the city's main thoroughfares.

Bearing decorative lanterns, banners and flags, participants sang patriotic songs and distributed handbills to the thousands of people that lined the way.

At the commemoration meeting in the day, General Wu Te-chen, Chairman of the Kwangtung Provincial Government, delivered the main speech.

All amusement houses were closed yesterday and flags were half-masted. (Central News).

PROGRESS OF CAMPAIGN SATISFIES CHIANG

Japanese Encountering Great Difficulties

London, March 30.

Interviewed by a Times correspondent at Hankow on his return from an extensive tour of the Northern fronts, Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek made no extravagant claims but expressed satisfaction at the progress of the campaign.

He commented with complacency on the marked improvement in the moral efficiency of the Chinese troops, which is justified by reports from foreign observers.

The Generalissimo said that supplies of war material gave no grounds for uneasiness "for the present," a phrase which the correspondent understands may liberally be interpreted in terms of months.

CHINA'S REWARD
The Generalissimo and Madame Chiang, state the correspondent, are looking well and bear the destinies of China with confident serenity.

In an editorial, the Times says that no doubt the Japanese are encountering great difficulties both north and south of the Yellow River. Japanese militarists, to use a colloquialism, have bitten more than they can chew, says the journal.

The Birmingham Post says that there are good practical reasons for hoping that China has at long last, after the most serious sacrifices, found a way to defeat an unprincipled and aggressive neighbour. (Reuter).

TEN COUNTRIES TO ASSIST JEWISH REFUGEES

ROOSEVELT'S ACTION APPRECIATED

London, March 30.

Ten countries have replied favourably to the United States suggestion that a committee be set up to assist Jewish refugees from Germany and Austria. They are France, Belgium, Sweden, and seven South American states.

The Executive Committee of the World Jewish Congress has expressed its most profound appreciation of President Roosevelt's proposal to help the Jews in Austria and Germany by asking other countries to help in accommodating Jewish immigrants. (Reuter Bulletin).

Local Germans And Austrians To Cast Votes

PLEBISCITE ON APRIL 10

Facilities for Germans and Austrians resident in Hong Kong to take part in the plebiscite of April 10 are in course of preparation.

Although no definite arrangements have been concluded, the German Consulate-General are hoping that on the day of the plebiscite local Germans and Austrians will be able to go on board a German steamer—probably the Frigatun—go outside British or Chinese waters and there cast their votes, which would then be cabled to Berlin to be included in the official returns.

A GERMAN ANSWERS

[To the Editor of The Hong Kong Daily Press.]

Sir,—Please allow me to comment on certain references to German colonisation made in your leader of March 29: "In Defence of Democracy."

As the day of the liquidation of the "Colonial Question," i.e. the Return of the German Colonies, comes nearer and nearer, it is quite natural that methods of colonisation are gaining more interest today.

The high efficiency of German colonisation has been proved by numerous foreign capacities and need therefore not be repeated here. It is, therefore, surprising that the old story, the pretext for the seizure of this German territorial property, Germany's inability to colonies, still may be observed to your readers, who are supposed to be ignorant of the real facts.

Britain indeed need not pale before German colonial methods, especially not in Africa. Besides the ignorant readers, there are still people who have heard of the "Bur War" in South Africa and its methods, which were not only directed against backward black races but against white kinsmen.

I am in a position to make further references about colonial methods of other "Colonial Powers" which would "pale" every decent man. But I think this remark will do and it is only made in defence, as German colonial methods are attacked.

Tolerance, justice and fair play are said to have advanced greatly in the post-war era. We Germans have not been able to notice that in any respect. We had been deprived of the rights, which the Western Democracies are willing to grant to the most backward, black African races, which have the privilege to be under the "mandate," the right of the self-determination of a people.

Germans living in Austria were in 1930 forbidden to join their German Fatherland because it did not suit the "democratic" ideal of the victor nations. A court comedy was staged at the Hague to confirm their decision.

Justice? Who has forgotten that the RIGHT to defend our own borders on the Rhineland with German troops was disputed by the representatives for Democracy and Justice?

Justice? Why are the robbed colonies not returned? Do the "Have's" not possess in abundance? Do the "Mandate holders" hold a mandate of the governed native population? Was the population asked in 1918 whether they wished to get new "protectors?"

There is no need to answer these questions.

Phrases and misrepresentation of the case do not help us forward. It seems to me really waste of time to thrash out old straw again.

And finally, thinking people of your side know the facts and need not be "informed" and we do not believe in justice until we get justice. Without justice there is no peace in the world!

So said Chamberlain recently when he said: "Peace must be built on justice."

Yours truly,

M. HESS.

Hong Kong, March 29.

PASTEURISATION

Sir,—In this morning's edition of your paper I find a most unwarranted reference to my name by a colleague who was attending the recent meeting of the Urban Council.

APPEAL FOR SUPPORT

Engineers' Institute Meeting

Prof. C. A. Middleton-Smith, of The University, was elected president of the Engineers' and Shipbuilders' Institute at the annual meeting of the Institute held last evening when a very good year's work was reviewed by Mr. W.G.M. Wilson, chairman of the Managing Committee.

Mr. Wilson said that although a loss of $429.51 was sustained for the year, the situation was very satisfactory in that elaborate renovations had been carried out in the clubrooms and the billiard tables.

In thanking the meeting for electing him president, Professor Middleton-Smith made an appeal to all connected with shipbuilding and engineering in the Colony to support the Institute.

His remarks were endorsed by Mr. J. Russell as well as the chairman.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

The election of officers resulted as follows:—

President: Prof. C.A. Middleton-Smith. Vice-presidents: B.D. Evans and E. Cock. Hon. Sec.: Mr. W.F. Simpson. Hon. Treasurer: Mr. J.T. Tarrant. Hon. Librarian: Mr. F.J. Neill. Auditors: Messrs. Lowe, Bingham and Matthews. Committee: Messrs. W.G.M. Wilson, C. Bond, W.F. Simpson, M.A. Cairns, J.F. Saunders, J. Russell, F.J. Neill, J.W. Wells, E. Laidlaw, Wm. Kelley, B.D. Evans, J.J. Forster.

PRIZE PRESENTED

At the conclusion of the meeting Prof. Middleton-Smith presented a cheque to Mr. C. Bond who won the President's Prize for Billiards during the year.

He said he felt sure Mr. Bond would buy a prize which he liked to commemorate his success in the tournament.

I have never discussed with this member the question of pasteurisation of milk as applied to any place outside Hong Kong. I was faced with a query on the possible difficulties of the method in Hong Kong where an insufficiently trained and ignorant personnel might conceivably be the cause of faulty pasteurisation but that is no sufficient reason for the condemnation of pasteurisation properly carried out.

Pasteurisation of milk is everywhere accepted as a most essential public health measure and I am in entire agreement with it.

With regard to bovine tuberculosis in Hong Kong it is a fact that cattle are affected but with regard to the incidence in children it is impossible at present to make any dogmatic statement.

To my knowledge no intensive study of the question has yet been made and it is a matter for thorough investigation.

A Chinese constable recognised the vehicle and tried to intercept the car. He was knocked down receiving severe injuries. The unknown driver disappeared.

A traffic accident occurred in front of the Star Ferry wharf at 7.35 p.m. yesterday involving a taxicab and a tricycle.

The tricycle, at the time of the accident, was following a car. The cyclist, Chan Kal-nam, suffered minor injuries and was removed to the Queen Mary Hospital.

W.C. HUNG WINS FINE SINGLES MATCH

George Choa Plays Two Excellent Sets

By F. Mela

W. C. Hung, of the Chinese Recreation Club, beat George Choa (Craigengower Cricket Club) by scores of 6-2, 4-5, 7-5 yesterday in one of the best matches played so far in the Colony tennis championships.

It was the case of the more experienced man winning, but Hung took the game so casually that at one stage it was touch and go. George Choa played a great game and he need not be discouraged for it is my opinion that with more mature experience he will develop into one of the best Hong Kong trained players.

HUNG'S FLYING START

The Chinese Recreation Club player started off by taking five games in a row but nothing daunted Choa fought back and took the next two games before conceding the set. He then went one better in the second set, playing a much better game and led 4-1 only to let Hung draw level. He was not to be denied, however, and clinched the set at 6-4, receiving a well-deserved round of applause in the process.

The third set was somewhat spoiled by the safety tactics employed by the younger player and Hung went about it. He seemed too casual about some of his strokes although when Choa led at 3-1 he speeded up his game a bit and drew level. He actually led at 5-4 but although a very tired player Choa refused to be discouraged and went on to make the 5-all.

HELD TO A DRAW

CORINTHIANS BACK FROM MANILA

The Islington Corinthians who returned here from Manila by the R.M.S. Empress of Japan yesterday, played their second match against the South China Athletic Association at Caroline Hill in the afternoon and the thousands of spectators who attended were treated to a very close game, the teams sharing two goals.

The Chinese were the first to attack and after some midfield play Lee Shek-yau sent in a beautiful drive which left Longman standing. Spurred by this early success the Chinese forwards gave the Corinthians a busy time and kept up a continuous attack. The teams, however, crossed over with no further scoring.

PENALTY AWARDED

After the interval the Islingtonians played a different type of football and as a result monopolised play. They could not, however, beat the Chinese goalie although they tested him with a number of shots and it was not until they were awarded a penalty that they were able to equalise. Johnny Sherwood making no mistake with the spot kick.

The teams were: South China—Tam Kwan-kon, Mak Siu-hon and Li Tin-sang; Leung Wing-chiu, Lau Hing-choi and Lee Kwok-wai; Tang Kwong-sum, Fung King-cheong, Chan Tak-fai, Lau Chung-sang and Lee Shek-yau.

Corinthians—Longman, Clark, Buchanan, Wright, Whittaker, Bradbury, Read, Tarrant, Sherwood, W. Miller and Pearce.

TODAY'S MATCH

At Caroline Hill this afternoon the Islingtonians will play their last match in the Colony. A combined team from South China and the Royal Navy will provide the opposition.

MANILA TOUR

The Islington Corinthians played eight matches in Manila, winning four, drawing two and losing two. Both their defeats were by All-Manila, the first by 3-0 and the second, played on Sunday last, by 1-0.

They expressed the opinion that the referees were very poor compared to those who officiated at the matches in Hong Kong, and in most of the games they played in Manila the crowds were biased and expressed their feelings in no uncertain terms when things were not going the right way for their sides.

FINEST STROKE PLAYER

STANLEY J. McCABE (New South Wales).—Born, July 16, 1910. Looks older than 27, being baldish and plumpish. He came into Test cricket as an all-rounder. Does not do much bowling now, but his batting has become vintage.

He is perhaps the finest stroke player in cricket. His style is nearly perfect. Only Frank Woolley can delay shots and effortlessly flash the bowling through the covers as he can.

Has scored 1,569 runs in twenty Tests against England for average of 49.03. McCabe is a good close-in fieldman and still Australia's best all-rounder.

AUSTRALIAN WOMEN TENNIS PLAYERS

Play In Colombo On Way Home From Europe

Ceylon has been privileged in the past to see eminent Lawn Tennis players like Norman Brookes, Gerald Patterson, C. P. Dixon, the brothers A.H. and Sir Gordon Lowe, J. O. Anderson, Jack Crawford, Fred Perry, McGrath, Hopman, Quist, G. P. Hughes, Shimizu Jiro Satoh and more recently the ex-world's tennis champions W. T. Tilden and Henri Cochet, writes a Ceylon correspondent.

Ceylon has also seen a Wimbledon and American woman champion in the person of Miss Elizabeth Ryan and another Wimbledon champion in Miss Dorothy Round, now Mrs. Little.

Other famous players who have been seen in Ceylon include Miss E. M. Dearman and Miss Nancy Lyle, the well-known English Doubles players.

Mrs. Hopman, who is to captain the Australian women's team at Wimbledon this year, played Singles and Doubles a year ago in Colombo when returning home from Europe. She will give Ceylon another opportunity of seeing her in action. With her on board the P. and O. Maloja are three of Australia's greatest young players—Misses Nancy Wynne, Thelma Coyne and Dorothy Stevenson.

Three years ago we saw the English women's team comprising Dorothy Round, Nancy Lyle and E. M. Dearman at the Garden Club. On that occasion Miss Round played more brilliantly than ever a woman had done in Ceylon. The Australian team is also a very high class one including potential world champions in Nancy Wynne and Thelma Coyne.

J. O. Anderson, the old Davis Cup player recently said that the only two better women players he had ever seen were Suzanne Langlen and Helen Wills.

POPULAR PLAYER

Mrs. Hopman, who is captain of the side, is a very popular player against them on this occasion.

GOOD YEAR
REVIEWEDHong Kong Rope
Mfg. CompanyPresiding at the annual meeting of shareholders of the Hong Kong Rope Manufacturing Co., Ltd., held at the offices of the Company yesterday, Mr. A. L. Shields said that the turnover for the year showed an improvement over the 1936 figures and added that he was glad to note that the Colonial Office was alive to the need of encouraging local industries.The subject of preferential treatment for Hong Kong manufactured goods, he said, will be presented during the negotiations for new trade agreements with India and the Dominion Governments this year.

CHAIRMAN'S SPEECH

Addressing the meeting Mr.
Shields said:—Our turnover of Rope for the year now under review shows an improvement over the figures for 1936 in spite of the keen competition with which we have had to contend.With regard to our properties, the Factory Buildings at Matakok continue in occupation, and about 90 per cent. of the number of flats in our 23 Chinese Dwelling House at Kennedy Town is now occupied as compared with 40 per cent. this time last year. The increase is due to the influx of refugees from various parts of China owing to the Sino-Japanese hostilities.

YEAR'S PROFIT

Turning to the Accounts, Gentlemen, you will see that the profit earned for the year under review, after providing for Depreciation and allowing for Directors' and Auditors' Fees and Commission to General Managers, etc., is $58,209.
86. This amount added to the balance of $43,065.68 brought forward from 1936, makes a total at credit of Profit and Loss Account of $101,275.54, which your Directors recommended be dealt with as follows:—Pay a dividend of 25 cents per share absorbing $50,000.00
And carry forward to credit of next year's account $51,275.54Depreciation on Buildings, etc., has been provided on the usual basis except that your Directors decided to provide an additional $10,000 depreciation on Machinery as some of our machines are now getting old and will need replacing.Revenue from rents shows an increase of $3,186.92 over the figures recorded for 1936.You will notice that Share Investments do not appear in the Accounts. These were sold during the past year at a profit of $5,358.60
as shown in the Profit and Loss Account.You will also note the amount of $3,828.50 expended on the Wharf. This represents the cost of repairs and replacements made during the year and I may say that the Wharf is now practically a new one.

SUNDY DEBTORS

Sundry Debtors Accounts amounting to $68,112.87 are slightly higher than usual owing to increased sales made towards the end of the year. These are ordinary trade balances with customers which have practically all been paid up.The Cash Position has also improved since the date of the accounts and is adequate to meet the dividend requirements.As regards the prospects for the current year, it is unfortunate that world conditions in general and the state of affairs in the Far East make any forecast dangerous, but I may say, however, that we continue to enjoy the support of many Shipping Companies and our sales so far are encouraging.Mr. S. T. Williamson seconded, and the report and accounts were adopted.

OTHER BUSINESS

Kadoorie were re-elected directors

EXCHANGE
CONTROL

(BY AIR MAIL)

The Paris office of the Chinese Press Bureau has issued the following statement of Dr. H. H. Kung, China's Prime Minister and concurrently Minister of Finance, with reference to the recent Government mandate on foreign exchange control.Dr. Kung's statement is as follows:—Following the outbreak of the Sino-Japanese hostilities, a gentlemen's agreement was made among the bankers whereby the Chinese Government banks provided exchange only for legitimate purposes.
This agreement has made trade possible despite difficulties, and confidence in the Chinese currency has been steadily maintained.The recent puppet bank in North China is a Japanese effort to substitute notes, in-convertible into free foreign exchange, for the national currency, and thus obtain reserves by restricting the national currency, using such notes for their own purposes.The exchange measure has been adopted after careful consideration by the Chinese Government as the most practical means to defend China's currency against this measure.The Chinese Government strongly desire to employ the best workable procedure, and has assured those concerned that modifications can be made in the light of experience. It is also desired to cause the least possible interference with the previous system, and with the position of Shanghai.
The measure expressly states that the exchange will be consolidated at existing levels, as it is intended to maintain firmly the stability of the Chinese currency.H.M.S. BELFAST

ton class, which has been built by Harland and Wolff, Limited, was launched from the firm's yard at Queen's Island on March 17 by Mrs.
Neville Chamberlain, states The Times.This is the first time that a ship of the Navy has been named Belfast. Referring to this fact at a luncheon after the naming ceremony, the Lord Mayor of Belfast (Sir Crawford McCullagh) said that the city intended to mark the honour by presenting the new cruiser with a silver ship's bell and a set of flags.Replying to the toast of "H.M.S.
Belfast," proposed by Sir Crawford McCullagh, Vice-Admiral St.
A. B. Wake said that the idea of naming vessels of the new cruiser class after the great cities of the Kingdom was to draw contributions to the personnel of the Navy from their vast populations and also to establish a special interest between each city and a particular vessel of the Fleet.On behalf of the builders of the ship, Mr. F. E. Rebeck, chairman of Messrs. Harland and Wolff, presented to Mrs. Chamberlain a diamond bracelet as a memento of the launch of the Belfast.Acknowledging this gift, Mrs.
Chamberlain said she was proud to feel that she had started H.M.S.
Belfast on her mission as part of the British Navy to maintain the peace of the world and to protect British lives and shipping.FIRST HOSPITAL WITH A BANK

Guy's Gives The Lead

Guy's Hospital is the first hospital in the country to have its own bank for use of its staff.The bank has been opened in a part of the main building. It is a sub-branch of the Southwark branch of one of the "big five" banks, and the hospital staff will be paid there—about 500 receiving their wages weekly, and 1,000
monthly.Money may be paid into the bank as well as withdrawn.

GOOD ATTENDANCE AT WEEKLY RIFLE SHOOT

Major D. H. Steers Attends For The Last Time

The mid-week Spoon and Practice Shoot held by the Hong Kong Rifle Association on the Army Ranges at Kowloon City was marked by a good attendance, which in actual numbers totalled 112.

Conditions were good, although the wind was inclined to be rather tricky at all ranges, and there were fifteen scores of 90 and over in the S.R. (b) class. This was the last occasion on which Major D. H. Steers, O.B.E., R.E., the retiring Honorary Secretary of the Association, was able to attend. On this occasion, concurrently with the Spoon Shoot, members of the 1st Bn. The Middlesex Regiment shot for the Cup which was kindly presented to the Battalion by Major Steers, and which was to be competed for annually with the "1914" rifle. There were sixteen competitors entered for the Cup, which was won by Sgt. P. Hale with an aggregate of 92.

HIMALAYAN POLO

A Perilous Game

Polo in the high places of the Himalayas was about as perilous a game as one can imagine. The player had to face the possibility of dashing themselves against a steep rock or of going hurtling down a precipice.

The ball was very often nothing more than a tight roll of sheepskin, which soon lost its shape and opened out. It could then be picked up on the stick and carried about.

Very often the game ended in the ball being torn into so many pieces that it disappeared altogether. In an old travel book there is a description of the game somewhere in Turkistan in which no attempt was made to roll the sheepskin into a ball. The skin was merely flung into the middle of the field and there the players savaged it as a lot of puppies might.

Finally one man got the bulk of the skin on the end of his stick. He then made for the open road.

OFF FOR CRICKET

Sonny Avery was an absentee from the Corinthians team yesterday. He left for home early this month to be in time for the cricket season.

Neither hand nor head shook for his head he turned to look as he galloped out of sight. That was the end of the game. None of the players or spectators seemed to be surprised at this termination of the game. Evidently they expected some such ending. Would it not be a good thing if every man who ran with a football through the goal posts were allowed to keep it? Such a rule would enliven Rugby. —(Times of Malaya).
